NARRATIVE

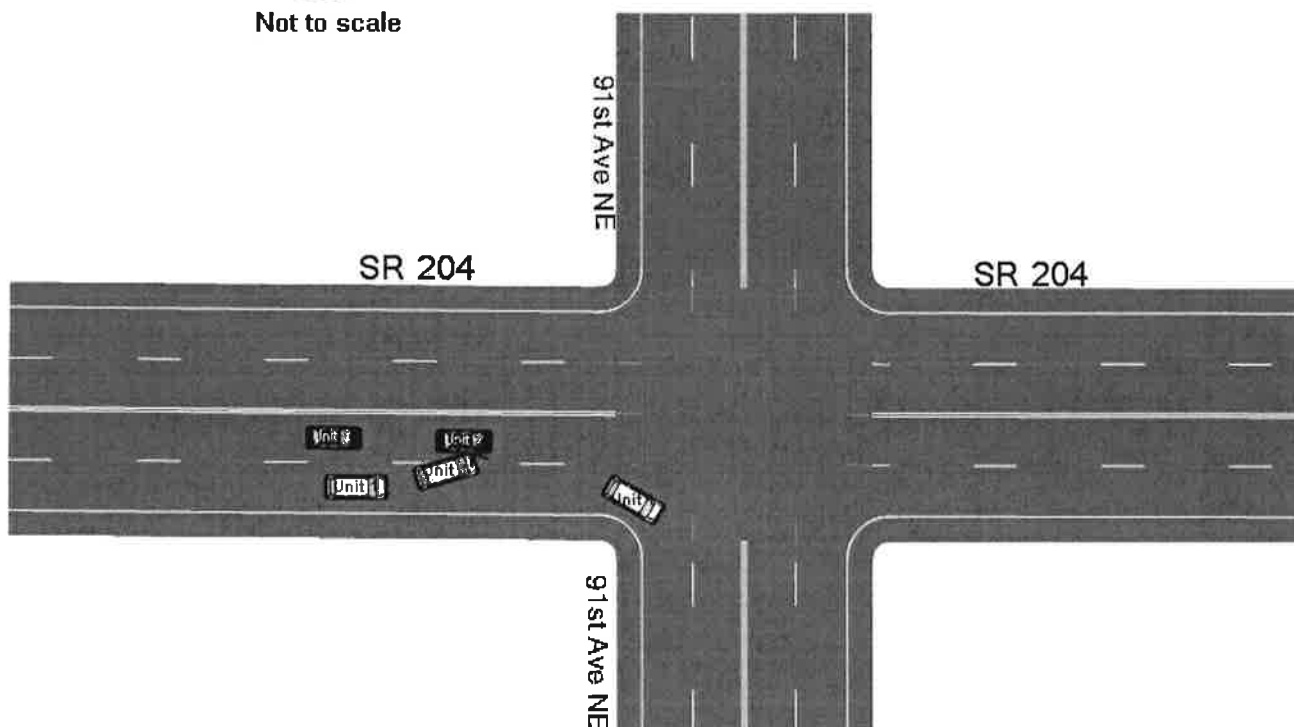

On the listed date and time Units 1 and 2 were involved in a road rage incident. After the driver of Unit 1 exited his vehicle and attempted to contact the driver of Unit 2, he got back into his vehicle and swerved left to strike the passengers side of Unit 2. He then left the scene as Unit 2 attempted to follow. The vehicle was never located.

Narrative:

On October 6th, 2015 I was on patrol for the City of Lake Stevens Police Department, in a fully marked police vehicle, consisting of overhead emergency lights and oversized reflective decals indicating "Police". My uniform on this day consisted of a jump suit with large letters across the back indicating "Police". "Police" is also shown in large letters on the front of the jump suit. The department patches are also shown on each shoulder of the jump suit.

At approximately 1814 hours, I was dispatched to 2530 Cedar RD #B in the city of Lake Stevens to speak with the victim of a hit and run collision that occurred at the intersection of 91st Ave NE and SR 204. The victim, Brandon M. George DOB: 09-08-1995 informed me that he was driving eastbound on SR 2 from Everett when another vehicle was driving erratic around him. Brandon said that they were cutting each other off in an apparent road rage incident.

Brandon's vehicle is a 1993 Black Nissan with the WA License plate of #AVR6258.

Brandon said when they were stopped at the intersection at 91st Ave NE and SR 204, the driver of the white dodge Caliber (suspect vehicle) exited and approached Brandon's vehicle. Brandon then threw a drink at the male driver and the male driver then got back in the dodge Caliber and struck the right passengers side of his vehicle, then drove off. After trying to follow the suspect vehicle, Brandon lost it near SR 9 and SR 204.

I took photographs of the damage to Brandon's vehicle and provided him a business card with the case number. I was unable to locate the suspect vehicle.

I certify (or declare) under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of Washington that the foregoing statement is true and correct.

driving home from work and a guy rides my Buick at a light, then he aggressively passes me and others in traffic. Pull up to the light by 7/11 and he's yelling out of his window. I stop to justify myself and he threatens me, then gets out of car and kicks my rear bumper. I threw my drink at him and he viers right into me on purpose then tries to leave, I followed the best I could he was speeding through parking lots. Then I seen him take a right on 204 heading back to lake Stevens. He assaulted me with his car and tweaked my neck.
